TO THE CULTIVATORS OF THE SUIL

THE AMERICAN FARMER.

The first number of the AMERICAN FARMER was issued on the 2d of April, 1819. It may now be aunounced as an established National Work, adapted to all the varieties of our climate, since many of the most eminent citizens in all the states, contribute by their patronage and their peus, to its circulation and its usefulness.

To make known all discoveries in the To make known all discoveries in the science and all improvements in the practice of Agriculture and Domestic (Economy, and to develope the means and designate plans of Internal Improvements generally, constitute the chief objects to which the AMERICAN FARMER is devoted. It takes no concernor information party politics. takes no concernor interest in party politics, nor in the transient occurrences of the day.

nor in the transient occurrences of the day.

The Farmer is published weekly on a sheet the size of a large newspaper, and folded so as to make eight pages, and to admit of being conveniently bound up and preserved in volumes. Each volume will preserve of fifteties numbers, a title mare onsist of fifty-two numbers, a title page consist of fitty-two numbers, and an index, and numerous engravings to represent new implements and approved systems of husbandry.

Each number gives a true and accurate statement of the then selling prices or country produce, live stock, and all the principa articles brought for sale in the Balt more market.

Terms of subscription $4 per annum, to be paid in advance. But for the sum of five dollars, the actual receipt of every number is guaranteed. That is, when numbers fail to come to hand, duplicates shall be sent until every number shall have been received.
